

Friends of the Prudence Crandall Museum Present
LIVES & LEGACIES: A SYMPOSIUM

THE STORY OUTLIVES THE CANVAS

Saturday May 12, 2018

10:00 AM to 4:00 PM

Canterbury Community Center
Canterbury CT

Tickets $25.00

For reservations call
860-546-7800 x 7

SPEAKERS:

Lisa Joseph, Art Historian

TOPIC: artist Frances Alexander who painted the portrait of Prudence Crandall

Dr. Manisha Sinha

Draper Chair in
American History
University of Connecticut

2017 Frederick
Douglass Book Prize
Winner for her book

"The Slave's Cause: A History of Abolition" (Yale University Press).

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SYMPOSIUM:

- Dr. Sinha will be speaking about Women in Abolition, followed by a book signing.
- Presentation of the play "Yours for Humanity – Abby"
Abby Kelley Foster, Radical Abolitionist, Women's and Human Rights Activist portrayed by Lynne McKenney Lydick

"Few Americans can be named...who did so much for the abolition of slavery...whose words startled and aroused the land."

- Samuel May, Jr., noted abolitionist (1887)